Dr. James C. Howell is the senior pastor of Myers Park United Methodist Church. He has published 15 books, the most recent being Why This Jubilee: Advent Reflections on Songs of the Season. He serves on numerous nonprofit boards in the community, speaks frequently in Charlotte and around the country, and is an adjunct professor of preaching at Duke Divinity School.

Dr. John Boggs serves as the Conference Director of Vital Discipleship. Responding to local church needs, he leads an intentional focus on disciple-making systems. His team designs and develops processes that will assist local churches in cultivating deeply committed and transformed disciples as they discover fresh expressions of faithful discipleship.

Keynote speaker Dr. Angela Pleasants is currently the District Superintendent of the Catawba Valley District, previously serving as pastor of FUMC Mt. Holly, Central UMC, and Wingate UMC. She is a graduate of NC A & T (1990) and Duke Divinity School (1999). An out of the box, visionary leader with a passion for transformation, she enjoys new and creative ways to engage people in their spiritual growth and to help others get involved in mission next door as well as beyond their area of residence.
