

Our Online Prayer Wall...

We launched a new feature on our webpage, the Prayer Wall, where people can share their needs, praises, and concerns with others online. You can visit our wall at

Prayer-Center.UpperRoom.org/Prayer-Wall

The idea behind this project is to create an online prayer community that enables more people to pray for each other. This is a simple new tool to do what The Prayer Center has always done. Join this global community of prayer. Pray for—and respond to—the requests you see. We invite you to request prayer for yourself or a loved one, or even someone you do not know.

Phone Volunteers

The Living Prayer Center is always in need of phone volunteers. To learn more about how to become a prayer volunteer or to learn about starting a Covenant Prayer Group please contact our office.

Equipping & Connecting Disciples To Deepen Their Prayer Lives

LIVING
PRAYER
CENTER

A Ministry of The Upper Room

Connecting People to a
Powerful Prayer Network

Bear one another's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ. –Galatians 6:2

The mission of The Upper Room Living Prayer Center is to help individuals, small groups, and local congregations grow in their understanding and experience of prayer. For more than 35 years, we have had a single purpose: helping disciples of Christ experience the living, transformative power of prayer.

Intercessory prayer needs more than one person to occur. That's why we created a way for people who need prayer to connect online or through the phone.

How the Center Works

Each day, hundreds of people request prayer by phoning The Living Prayer Center's toll-free number (available 7 AM – 11 PM). These are more calls than our staff can handle, so we rely on the assistance of volunteers around the country. If you are led to participate in this ministry, call our office at 1.877.899.2780 ext. 7215. You might choose to receive calls just two hours a week—we can forward calls directly to your home or church. Even small commitments of time make a big difference!

As the volunteers connect with callers, they take notes about specific needs before praying with the caller. This information is then shared with one of our Covenant Prayer Groups throughout the U.S., who continue to pray for the caller.

Covenant Prayer Groups

It's easy to start a Covenant Prayer Group in your church. All it takes is a commitment to meet once a week and complete a recommended Bible study about intercessory prayer. After this initial study is completed and with the recommendation of your pastor, the group is chartered as a designated Upper Room Covenant Prayer Group. You will then receive weekly prayer requests by e-mail. Once chartered, group members choose one of our follow-up prayer resources to continue the journey of transforming their prayer lives.

To become a phone volunteer, all you need is a vital Christian experience to share with persons who call and a desire to grow in your own prayer life.

"As I take calls from people all over the country... I feel connected to the body of Christ in a special way."

– Elizabeth, California

Individual Prayer Partners

Individuals make a covenant to pray on a regular basis for needs, issues, and concerns expressed through our prayer line and webpage. Each week they receive a new prayer list via email with needs from around the world.

Please consider partnering with us in this important prayer ministry. God's hand moves in powerful ways as we seek Him in sincerity and truth.
